

Kawartha Area First Nations and Other Indigenous Events Calendar

2017

Local Public Events – confirmed dates

2017	Event
Nov 2	Book Talk: Medicine Unbundled: A Journey through the Minefields of Indigenous Health Care With Gary Geddes 7 pm at the Gathering Space, Gzowski 102
Nov. 5	Remembrance Day Service at the Alderville Community Centre starting at 2:00 pm.
Nov 9	Understanding Our Local Treaties. A Pinetree Talk. The Gathering Space, Trent University. Gzowski College. The Gathering Space, 7-9 pm.
Nov 10	Stories of the Land: A Present Day Story: Does Business Have a Role in Reconciliation? David Newhouse (Onondaga), Professor and Chair of Indigenous Studies at Trent University, will offer insights from his conversations with business leaders. 7:00 – 9:00 pm At the Unitarian Fellowship of Peterborough, 775 Weller Street (at Medical Drive).
Nov 21	Indigenous Research Day. Trent University. 9 am – 5 pm
Dec 5	Stories of Reconciliation. A series of short videos by third year students in the Indigenous Studies Department. The Gathering Space. Trent University. 9 am – 12.

2018
Feb 9-11	Indigenous Women's Symposium , Trent University.
Feb? Mar?	Elders Gathering , Trent University

ONGOING EVENTS – CONTACT THE SOURCE TO CONFIRM

Each Tues	Women's Hand Drumming Drop-In. For all women of any experience level. Every Tuesday evening. 1097 Water Street @ Nijkiwendidaa Anishnaabekweg Services Circle 5 – 7 pm. For information:
Each Wed	Weekly Grandmothers Luncheon. Lunch and talking circle. 1097 Water Street @ Nijkiwendidaa Anishnaabekweg Services Circle.. For information contact head grandmother, Linda Richardson. (705) 743-7963.
Each Sat	Nitaawe. Culture and Language Program. 1097 Water Street @ Nijkiwendidaa Anishnaabekweg Services Circle.11 am – 1 pm. For information contact head office (705) 741-0900.
Each Wed	Ojibway Language Classes. 360 George Street North, Unit 6, Peterborough Square, Lower Level. 10 am – 12 noon. For information, contact: Peterborough Native Language Programme (705) 741-0798.
Re-opening, spring 2017	Kinomaage-Waapkong "The Rocks That Teach" (Petroglyphs Provincial Park) . 10 am – 5 pm. 2249 Northey's Bay Rd., Woodview K0L 3E0. For information: http://www.curvelakefirstnation.ca/tourism-and-culture/petroglyphs.php
In general	Nogojwanong Friendship Centre. 580 Cameron St. Their website is http://www.nogofc.ca/ for further info re. programmes they offer.
Occasional Tuesdays	Tuesday Nights Traditional Teaching. Trent University, school term only. in the Ernie and Florence Benedict Gathering Space (Gzowski College) GCS 102, from 6 – 8 pm. For information: First People's House of Learning. fph@trentu.ca . Twitter: @fphltrentu FB: https://www.facebook.com/FirstPeoplesHouseOfLearning

Note: If you are planning to attend a Pow wow and have not attended before, you might like to look at the following brochure, section on Pow Wow etiquette. <http://www.curvelakefirstnation.ca/documents/powwow%20brochure%20-%20KC%20Edits.pdf>

Links for other events:

For cultural events at Curve Lake First Nation: <http://www.curvelakefirstnation.ca/tourism-and-culture/>
Curve Lake Pow Wow takes place each year on the third weekend in September.

For cultural events at Hiawatha First Nation: <http://www.hiawathafirstnation.com/>

Hiawatha Pow Wow takes place each year on the May 24th weekend. Email: info@hiawathafn.ca <http://www.hiawathafirstnation.com/>

For cultural events at Alderville First Nation: <http://alderville.ca/> and www.aldervillesavanna.ca

For events at Trent University, First People's House of Learning, follow us on Facebook: Facebook.com/FirstPeoplesHouseofLearning or <http://www.trentu.ca/fph/>

For events at Fleming College and Nijkwewenanda, but usually open to all, check calendar at <https://teamup.com/ks109dbe50c141cb82> or contact Kylie Fox, Fleming Aboriginal Student Services Coordinator at kylie.fox@flemingcollege.ca. The calendar indicates which events are open to the public.

For events at Nijkiwendidaa Anishnabekwag Services Circle (NASC), check the calendar at <http://www.nijki.com/programs.html>

Look for the lectures in a series 'A Sense of Place: Perspectives on Relationship to Land and Water in the Kawarthas' co-hosted by Kawartha Land Trust and Trent University. For information: <http://kawarthalandtrust.org/> or <http://www.trentu.ca/newsevents/news>

Events in Other Places to Note in 2017

Date	Location	Name of Event. Website and/or contact name and email
Jun–Nov 2017	Toronto	Anishinaabeg: Art & Power. Royal Ontario Museum (ROM)