

Kawartha Area First Nations and Other Indigenous Events Calendar 2018 - 2019

Local Public Events – confirmed dates

2018	Event
Jan 15h	Leanne Simpson , Michi Saagiig Scholar, activist and writer will introduce her new book "As We Have Always Done". 7 - 9 pm. Benedict Gathering Space, Gzowski College. A Pine Tree Talk, sponsored by the Chanie Wenjack School for Indigenous Studies, Trent University. For information: Christine Welter. cwelter@trentu.ca
Jan 25-28	ReFrame Festival . Check out several Indigenous Films that are showing at the Festival.
Feb 2	The Story of Our Treaties: Defining Relationships Between Peoples . Ann Taylor, Cultural Archivist for Curve Lake, will present a new video describing the treaties related to this land: Inaakonigewin Andaadad Aki: Michi Saagig Treaties. 7:00 – 9:00 pm, The Unitarian Fellowship of Peterborough, 775 Weller Street (at Medical Drive), an accessible location. $5-10 donation or pay what you can, Free parking.
Feb 9-11	Indigenous Women's Symposium , Trent University. Details: www.indigenouswomenssymposium.com and Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/search/top/?q=indigenous%20womens%20symposium%20trent%20university%202018
Mar 2 - 4	Elders Gathering , Trent University. Resistance, Resilience, Reclamation and Recognition. then, now, forever. https://www.trentu.ca/fph/elders and facebook: https://www.facebook.com/search/str/indigenous+elders+gathering+trent+university+2018/keywords_search
May 11	Benefit Concert for the Downie Wenjack Fund , Market Hall. Contact: Melodie McCullough, mcculloughmed@hotmail.com
May 21	Spring Art Show . Whetung Gallery at Curve Lake. 1-4 pm. For information: http://www.whetung.com/pages/special-events

ONGOING EVENTS – CONTACT THE SOURCE TO CONFIRM

Each Tues	Women's Hand Drumming Drop-In . For all women of any experience level. Every Tuesday evening. 1097 Water Street @ Nijkiwendidaa Anishnaabekweg Services Circle 5 – 7 pm. For information:
Each Wed	Weekly Grandmothers Luncheon . Lunch and talking circle. 1097 Water Street @ Nijkiwendidaa Anishnaabekweg Services Circle.. For information contact head grandmother, Linda Richardson. (705) 743-7963.
Each Sat	Nitaawe. Culture and Language Program . 1097 Water Street @ Nijkiwendidaa Anishnaabekweg Services Circle. 11 am – 1 pm. For information contact head office (705) 741-0900.
Each Wed	Ojibway Language Classes . 360 George Street North, Unit 6, Peterborough Square, Lower Level. 10 am – 12 noon. For information, contact: Peterborough Native Language Programme (705) 741-0798.
Re-opening, spring 2017	Kinomaage-Waapkong "The Rocks That Teach" (Petroglyphs Provincial Park) . 10 am – 5 pm. 2249 Northey's Bay Rd., Woodview K0L 3E0. For information: http://www.curvelakefirstnation.ca/tourism-and-culture/petroglyphs.php
In general	Nogojwanong Friendship Centre . 580 Cameron St. Their website is http://www.nogofc.ca/ for further info re. programmes they offer.
Occasional Tuesdays	Tuesday Nights Traditional Teaching . Trent University, school term only. in the Ernie and Florence Benedict Gathering Space (Gzowski College) GCS 102, from 6 – 8 pm. For information: First People's House of Learning. fphl@trentu.ca . Twitter: @fphltrentu FB: https://www.facebook.com/FirstPeoplesHouseOfLearning

Note: If you are planning to attend a Pow wow and have not attended before, you might like to look at the following brochure, section Dec 2017 on Pow Wow etiquette. <http://www.curvelakefirstnation.ca/documents/powwow%20brochure%20-%20KC%20Edits.pdf>

Links for other events:

For cultural events at Curve Lake First Nation: <http://www.curvelakefirstnation.ca/tourism-and-culture/>
Curve Lake Pow Wow takes place each year on the third weekend in September.

For cultural events at Hiawatha First Nation: <http://www.hiawathafirstnation.com/>
Hiawatha Pow Wow takes place each year on the May 24th weekend. Email: info@hiawathafn.ca <http://www.hiawathafirstnation.com/>

For cultural events at Alderville First Nation: <http://alderville.ca/> and www.aldervillesavanna.ca

For events at Trent University, First People's House of Learning, follow us on Facebook:
Facebook.com/FirstPeoplesHouseofLearning or <http://www.trentu.ca/fphl/>

For events at Fleming College and Nijkwewenanda, but usually open to all, check calendar at <https://teamup.com/ks109dbe50c141cb82> or contact Kylie Fox, Fleming Aboriginal Student Services Coordinator at kylie.fox@flamingcollege.ca. The calendar indicates which events are open to the public.

For events at Nijkiwendidaa Anishnabekwag Services Circle (NASC), check the calendar at <http://www.nijki.com/programs.html>

Look for the lectures in a series 'A Sense of Place: Perspectives on Relationship to Land and Water in the Kawarthas' co-hosted by Kawartha Land Trust and Trent University. For information: <http://kawarthalandtrust.org/> or <http://www.trentu.ca/newsevents/news>

Events in Other Places to Note in 2017

Date	Location	Name of Event. Website and/or contact name and email